Travis Smith

Conductor, Middle School Band

Travis Smith is currently the Symphonic Wind Ensemble Director at Collin College in Plano, Texas and a Field Supervisor for Student Teachers at Texas A&M University-Commerce. Prior to this position, he was Director of Bands and Chair of the Fine Arts Department at Williams High School in Plano, where he taught for thirty-three years, retiring in 2018. Prior to his position at Williams, he was Director of Bands and Chair of the Fine Arts Department at Ashdown High School in Ashdown, Arkansas for eight years. Bands under his direction have consistently rated superior in UIL Marching, Concert and Sight-reading contest. In addition to receiving numerous sweepstakes awards, his bands were also selected as Best in Class or named runner-up at numerous invitational music festivals. His Williams High School Symphonic Band was the 1990 Texas Honor Band for the Four States Bandmasters Association Convention. His Williams Wind Ensemble was awarded Outstanding Music Performance Awards at festivals in Dallas, Houston, and San Antonio. The 2015-2016 Williams Wind Ensemble was named "Best in Class" and was named the Most Outstanding High School Group at the festival by the judges at the PEAK Music Festival in Dallas. His 2017-2018 Band also received an Outstanding Performance award at the PEAK Music Festival in Dallas.

Travis graduated from East Side High School in Cleveland, Mississippi in 1971. He attended Alcorn State University upon graduation from East Side High School and was a Presidential Scholar. After his freshmen year, he transferred to Delta State University where he received his bachelor and master's degrees in music education. He is a member of Phi Beta Mu National Honorary Band Fraternity, the America School Band Directors Association, Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, and the Texas Music Adjudicators Association. Travis' awards and honors include: "Teacher of the Year" at Williams High School for the 1988-89 school year and the "Ross Perot Excellence in Teaching Award," the National Band Association Citation of Excellence, and named Music Alumnus of the Year by the Delta State University Department of Music in 1994. He has been selected for inclusion in several editions of "WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICA'S TEACHERS.". He was inducted into the Delta State University Music Hall of Fame on January 26, 1997 and the Dallas Metroplex Musicians' Associations Hall of Fame in January 30, 2016. Travis was the recipient of the Plano Community Forum's Educator of the Year Award in October of 2016. In the 2017-2018 school year, Travis was selected as "Teacher of the Year" at Williams High School in Plano and was in the top 10 of teachers and one of five secondary teachers chosen as a finalist for the Plano ISD District Teacher of the year. He was inducted to the Phi Beta Mu Texas Bandmasters Hall of Fame class of 2021 on July 24, in San Antonio at the Texas Bandmasters Association Convention.

Travis has served on many region and state level music committees in Arkansas and Texas. He also served ten years at the national level as a member of the executive board of American School Band Directors Association and is currently the Texas ASBDA state membership chair. He has served as an adjudicator and guest clinician in Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, New Mexico, Louisiana, and Tennessee. He is a Past President of the Four States Bandmasters Association, Past Band Division Chair for Region 3 of the Texas Music Educators Associations.

Alexander Kaminsky

Conductor, High School (9/10) Band

Alexander Kaminsky was appointed Director of Bands and Associate Professor of Music at VanderCook College of Music in 2019 after a highly successful tenure at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, FL. Previous to that, Kaminsky led the band programs at Buchholz High School, Lincoln High School, Auburndale High School, and Cocoa Beach Jr/Sr High School, all of which excelled under his direction. He holds degrees from the University of Florida and Indiana University, is active as an adjudicator, and is in demand as a guest conductor/clinician across the country.

Throughout his 30-year career as a high school band director, Kaminsky's ensembles consistently earned Superior ratings at all levels of evaluation. In addition to earning straight Superior ratings at the Florida Bandmasters Association (FBA) State Concert Band Assessment for an unprecedented 21 years (the last 11 years with both his first and second bands), he is the only director in the history of the FBA to have had three concert bands from one school earn straight Superior ratings at State, which he achieved three times (2009, 2018, and 2019).

Kaminsky's high school bands performed at the Midwest Clinic (2005, 2009, 2014, and 2018), ABA National Convention (2014), CBDNA/NBA Southern Division Conference (2004 and 2014), FMEA State Conference (2014), Music for All National Concert Band Festival (2002 and 2012), and the National Wind Band Festival at Carnegie Hall (2009 and 2018). In 2018, the Stoneman Douglas Wind Symphony was named a Mark of Excellence National Wind Band Honors winner as one of only ten 6A bands in the nation. His marching bands consistently placed in the Florida Marching Band State Championship Finals, winning several FMBC State Championships (including 4 of his last 6 years as a high school band director), as well as being named a finalist band at BOA regional competitions.

Kaminsky has presented his clinic "How Can I Get My Band to Sound Like That" at various conferences and workshops, and his hands-on rehearsal demonstrations for the annual "How To Fix It" series at the FMEA Professional Development Conference received high acclaim with over 900 attendees in 2019. He has been awarded the National Band Association's Citation of Excellence numerous times and has been recognized with several achievement awards for education, including Florida's 2019 FMEA Secondary Music Educator of the Year Award, FBA Oliver Hobbs Award, FBA Andrew J. Crew Award, National Honor Roll's Outstanding American Teacher, Nobel Educator of Distinction, Teacher of the Year, and is listed in Who's Who Among America's Teachers.

Kaminsky is a Conn-Selmer Educational Clinician, an elected member of the prestigious American Bandmasters Association and the American School Band Directors' Association, and also holds memberships in CBDNA, NBA, and Phi Beta Mu. He has served on many state and national committees, and currently serves on the ABA Sousa/Ostwald Award Committee and the ABA School Bands Task Force, and is the NBA National Student Chapters Advisor. Kaminsky is a National Board Certified Teacher and has been featured in several publications including The Instrumentalist, Teaching Music, Halftime Magazine, School Band & Orchestra Magazine's "50 Directors Who Make A Difference," Home Magazine's "12 Exceptional Educators," and most recently, Inspiring a Love of Music published by GIA Music.

Dr. Kevin M. Gerald

Conductor, Senior High School (11/12) Band

KEVIN M. GERALDI began his appointment as Director of Bands and Associate Professor of Conducting at the University of Illinois in the fall of 2022. His responsibilities include conducting the internationally renowned Illinois Wind Symphony, guiding the graduate program in wind conducting, and providing administrative leadership for the university's comprehensive and historic band program. Previously, Dr. Gerald served as Director of Instrumental Ensembles and Professor of Conducting at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where he joined the faculty in 2005. At UNCG, he conducted the Wind Ensemble, Symphony Orchestra, and Casella Sinfonietta, led the graduate program in instrumental conducting, taught undergraduate conducting, and guided the instrumental ensemble program. He has held additional faculty positions at Lander University in Greenwood, SC, and in the public schools of Westchester, IL.

Ensembles under Dr. Gerald's guidance have presented acclaimed performances in significant venues in the United States and Europe, at national and state conventions, and through recordings on the Equilibrium, Centaur Records, and JustinTime labels. He maintains an active schedule as a guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator with high school bands, orchestras, and honor ensembles, including appearances with the Greensboro Symphony, Xinghai Conservatory Symphony Orchestra (China), the Union Musicale de Roquetas de Mar (Spain), and numerous university ensembles. Dr. Gerald is a leader in commissioning and premiering new works for band and chamber ensemble and has earned praise for his collaborations with numerous significant composers and soloists.

Dr. Gerald is a co-author of The Elements of Expressive Conducting, a textbook for undergraduate conducting courses that is widely used around the United States. A dedicated proponent of music education, his articles for music educators on concert programming and effective rehearsal strategies have been published by The Instrumentalist and the Music Educators Journal, and he has contributed numerous conductor's guides for the Teaching Music Through Performance in Band series. He is a frequent presenter at international, national, and state conferences. His articles in The Journal of Band Research and the WASBE Journal address topics that reflect his interest in the history and performance practice of chamber music for winds, brass, and strings.

A native of Elmhurst, IL, Dr. Gerald holds the Doctor of Musical Arts and Master of Music degrees in conducting from the University of Michigan, where he studied with Michael Haithcock and H. Robert Reynolds, and the Bachelor of Music Education degree from Illinois Wesleyan University, where he studied conducting with Steven Eggleston. Additionally, he studied with teachers including Gustav Meier and Kenneth Kiesler and participated in conducting workshops with Pierre Boulez, Frederick Fennell, and Paul Vermeil.

Dr. Gerald is a recipient of the Conductors Guild's Thelma A. Robinson Award and the Outstanding Teaching Award in the UNCG School of Music. He is a National Arts Associate of Sigma Alpha Iota and a member of the American Bandmasters Association, the College Band Directors National Association, the National Band Association, the National Association for Music Education, Pi Kappa Lambda, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.
