MISCELLANEOUS . . .

From all reports the American Bandmasters Association meeting held in Greensboro, Chapel Hill, and Durham in early March was a big success. The concerts by the Grimsley (Greensboro) High School Band, the U. S. Army Band, the Duke University Band, the U.N.C. Wind Ensemble, and the Lenoir High School Band were well attended and received . . . the second annual Instrumental Workshop to be held at A.S.T.C. in Boone is set for July. Several nationally known instrumentalists will be presented. Complete information is forthcoming. . . East Carolina has just announced their second annual Contemporary Music Festival (May 1-7), and Summer Music Camp (July 21-August 3) . . . the UNC Music Department has moved into its expanded facilities. The new annex just completed will more than double its former size and equipment. Also, as a part of new changes in its program and operations, a number of music scholarships will be made available to deserving applicants.
