

*A History
of the Greensboro Senior High School and
Greensboro Grimsley High School Bands presented by
Jim Hill and Casey Hazelman*

*N&M&A Convention
Benton Convention Center
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
November 10, 2019*

-  Founding of Greensboro High School - 1899
George A. Grimsley, Superintendent
-  School moves to a new location - 1911
Renamed Greensboro Central High School
School mascot named “Whirlwinds”, later to be named “Whirlies”
Purple becomes school color
-  Band program begun - Grady Miller, director - 1925 - 1933
-  Earl Slocum becomes director - 1933 - 1935
-  Great Depression nearly closes the band program
-  Edward Tannebaum (an english teacher, teaches band one period per day) 1935-1936
-  School moves to present day location on Westover Terrace - 1929
Renamed Greensboro Senior High School
-  Herbert Hazelman becomes director - 1936
-  World War II - Mr. Hazelman enters U.S, Navy from 1942 until 1944
J. Harris Mitchell '31 directs the band during Hazelman's Naval service
-  Hazelman returns from the Navy - 1944-1978
-  School renamed Grimsley Senior High School - 1962
-  Kenneth Sampson - director - 1978 - 1981
-  Edgar Rooker - director - 1981-1988
-  Forrest Munden - director - 1988-1999
-  Stefan Stuber - director - 1999-2019
-  Jeremy Ray - director - 2019 -