HOW DO YOU MEASURE QUALITY?

Perhaps this is a question which causes you to stop and think. We already know what quality means to us! Of course, it means the most complete line of musical instruments and accessories... minor repairs made as a part of service... efficient and speedy delivery. However, it also means an honest and sincere desire to serve all our customers to the utmost of our ability. We measure our quality by you, the music educator. Our quality is better only when you're satisfied. We would like to give you a chance to see if we can measure up. Try us... today.
